Evolution Markets Named Best Carbon Broker in 2020 Environmental Finance Annual Survey

White Plains, NY (December 16, 2020): Evolution Markets has been recognized as “Best Broker” in European and North American carbon markets in the 21st Annual Survey published by Environmental Finance magazine. Overall, the company was named best broker in four categories. The Environmental Finance survey is the leading benchmark for traders, brokers, and other service providers in global environmental trading markets. The rankings are determined by votes from active market participants.

“Global carbon markets accelerated their growth in 2020, with corporate and governmental climate change ambitions reaching new heights,” said Andrew Ertel, President and CEO of Evolution Markets Inc. “Evolution Markets has been at the forefront this year of carbon market innovations that have helped enable this growth. We appreciate the recognition of these efforts among our clients and fellow market participants.”

Evolution Markets’ honors in the annual survey include being named "Best Broker" in the following categories:

Best Broker, Spot & Futures – EU Emissions Trading Scheme
Best Broker, Options – EU Emissions Trading Scheme
Best Broker, Options – North American Carbon Markets (California)
Best Broker (Runner Up), Spot & Futures – North American Carbon Markets (California)

Recognition in these major carbon market categories in the 2020 survey continues Evolution Markets run of more than 10 consecutive years as Best Broker in Europe and the United States.

“The Environmental Finance survey is an important marker of the companies contributing to market-based solutions to address global climate change,” added Mr. Ertel. “Sound carbon market design, followed by best-in-class execution services from our brokers, has always been the goal at Evolution Markets. We are pleased to receive these honors and look forward to further contributions in 2021, which we expect will be an even more eventful year for carbon markets.”
